The Efficient Work of Coroner Schaefer --- Something in Regard to the Officers Who Retire on Monday Next and Those Who Take Charge.

This is the last day of official duty for Prosecuting Attorney John C. Welty and Coroner Joseph A. Schaefer. On Monday next Mr. Charles C. Bow and Mr. John H. Openheimer will take charge of

In the retirement of Mr. Welty and Mr. Schnefer, the newspaper men of Canton lose two good friends, and if the new officials are as kind and obliging to the reporters as the gentlemen who retire on Monday next, there will be no cause for eomplaint. Mr. John C. Welty retires from the office of prosecuting attorney with a record of which he may well feel proud. His suc-cess during the past six years has been wonderful, and it is doubtful if any prosecuting attorney in Ohio can show as good a record. While firm, he has always been a record. While firm, he has always been just, and has never been known to resort to any questionable means to scenrea conviction. He has prepared all of his cases in a careful manner, working hard to present his side to the jury in the best possible manner. Even when warm per-sonal friends have interceeded for a criminal he has done his duty in a manner that could not help win for him the commen-dation of all good citizens. To the news-paper men he has been kind and courteous, and many times to the writer's per-sonal knowledge, has left important pri-vate business to favor a reporter. He retires from the office with the best wishes of those with whom he has been so closely associated, and his record insures him all the legal business that it is possible for him to at end. His successor, Mr. Charles C. Bow, is one of the leading young lawyers of the Stark county bar, and has made a reputa-tion for binaself that many older men would be proud of. He is a hard and earnest worker and has the reputation of being a first class trial lawyer. White a young man, be is considered an excellent advisor, and enters on the duties of the office with an experience at t e Court House that will be of much benefit to him. Mr. Bow is also a good friend to reporters, and will have the best wishes of all for a suc cessful legal career.

Coron r Joseph A. Schaefer leaves the office with the knowledge that he has done his work efficiently and thoroughly. He has made an excellent coroner. When he has received a call to attend to a case the night has never been too cold or too stormy to prevent him from responding immediately. In many cases he has been called to view remains in distant parts of the county late at night, and instead of waiting for a train he has always driven to the scene, so as to be there at the earliest possible moment. He has a host of friends who wish him well, and who will insure him a large practice.

Coroner-elect John H. Openheimer is one of Canton's best known and most popular young men. He is the proprietor of a drug store in East Tuscarawas street, and enters upon the duties of the office with a clear understanding of the work he will be called upon to perform. He is a hustler in every sense of the word, and it will keep the newspaper boys bustling to beat him to the scene of any disaster. Here is success to the new coroner.

THE OLD PROSECUTOR.

Mr. John C. Welty was bern in Tusyears. He took a collegiate course at Bethany, W. Va., and Mt. Union. He was admitted to the bar by the district court at Canton in 1875. In 1884 baugh went on the Circuit bench. In 1884 Mr. Welty defeated Mr. J. J. Grantfor the office of prosecuting attorney by a majority of between 200 and 309. Three years later he defeated Mr. C. C. Bow by about the same majority. The only time Mr. Welty was ever defeated was in 1879 when he ran against Mr. Henry W. Harter for prosecuting attorney. Last November Mr. Welty formed a partnership with Mr. R. N. Taylor, son of Judge Taylor, of Car-

One thing of which Mr. Welty can be proud, is the fact that in the six years he was Prosecutor, the county never had to pay one dollar for assistance in Common Pleas court, and only once in the Circuit or Supreme courts. There are few prosecuting attorneys with as good a record.

While in office Mr. Welty has had a number of important cases. In 1889 the case of the State vs. Charles Julian atgeneral attention all over the The law in regard to selecting the grand jury had been changed and there was some dispute as to what the new law meant. Judge Pease and Prosecutor Welty held the law had been carried out here. Mr. Welty prosecuted Corrad Dolf for murder, who committed suicide while on trial. He convicted Henry Popp of murder in the first degree. L. Arney was sent to the penitentiary for life for rape. Sherman Harter, Bill Harter, Joseph Doup, Joe Riefsnyder and George Nye were all convicted through his efforts. George Green received a nineteen year George Green received a nineteen year sentence for assaulting David Beggs. Arthur Ramie who was captured in Cali-fornia through the efforts of Sheriff A. Mr. Welty has secured between 150 and

200 convictions during the six years he has held office. He has had only six verdicts of not guilty and about six disagreements. This is a record of which any prosecuting

Mr. Welty was seen recently by a News-Democrat reporter and made the following statement: I desire to give due credit to all the officers and reporters for their vigilant and active work in bringing criminals to justice. To the marshals and police officers of Canton, Alliance and Massillon I desire to return thanks for assistance rendered.

THE NEW PROSECUTOR.

Mr. Charles C. Bow was born in Atwater township, Portage county, in 1858. When nine years of age he removed to Alliance and lived there until February, 1881, when he came to Cantor. He was appointed deputy clerk by County Clerk Ben. D. Wilson and held that position for three years, one year of the time being under Clerk John McGregor. While Mr. Wilson was county clerk he was in ill health, and Mr. Bow really had charge of the office. He performed the duties in a manner highly satisfactory to all who had business at the office, and made many friends. In 1882 he was admitted to the bar and commenced the practice of law in January, 1885. The firm has always been known as Wann & Bow. Three years ago Mr. Bow made the race for prosecutor against Mr. John C. Walts the was supposed. Mr. Charles C. Bow was born in Atwater Bow. Three years ago Mr. Bow made the race for prosecutor against Mr. John C. Welty, who was running for his second term. While running ahead of his ticket he was defeated. Last full he was elected to the same office over Mr. Charles Krichbaum. Mr. Bow has been very successful as a lawyer and has a bright future before him.

THE OLD CORONER.

Coroner Joseph A. Schaefer, was born in Canton in 1862, and has always made his home in this city. He studied medi-cine at the Western Reserve college, Gleveland, and the Wooster University.

In November, 1888, he was elected coroner over Dr. Geo. B. Cock by a majority of 420. He has been practicing medicine for about four years and is one of the most successful young physicians in Canton.

During his two years in office he has made many friends. He has been very faithful and efficient and has given excel-lens satisfaction to the people of Stark county. He is the son of Nicholas Schaefer, who was killed at the battle of Gettysburg, when the dector was only six months old.

White in office he has had several very White in office he has had several very important cases. He was only called in one case of suicide by hanging, that of Harry Edwards, the twelve year old boy who committed suicide near Sippo recently. He held inquests on the four people killed at Louisville by a Ft. Wayne train, the six at Bolivar by the Wheeling & Lake Eric, Moritz Grether and Lillie Borther. These are a few of his most important cases. Dr. Schaefer will continue the practice of medicine at the old stand in North Market street, where he stand in North Market street, where he will be pleased to see all his old friends and patrons and as many new ones as desire to call.

THE NEW CORONER.

Mr. J. H. Openheimer, who assumes the dignified title of coroner, was born at New Castle, Lawrence county, Pa., Aug. 23, 1857. One year after his birth his parents, Henry and Barbara Openheimer, moved to Canton where he was raised, and is therefore a bona fide Canton citizen. The Failure to Complete the Waynesburg Line Given as One of the Reasons---Unjust Discrimination Claimed.

A suit of much import has been filed in circuit court, the State of Ohio on the re-lation of John C. Welty, prosecuting attor-ncy, being plaintiff and the Cleveland and auton and the Canton and Waynesburg rallroads being defendants.
In the petition filed this afternoon, plaintiff alleges that the Cleveland and anton railroad controls the Canton and Waynesburg road and that under the charter the road was to be completed to Waynesburg. Plaintiff further states that the road has not been completed and that no effort is being made by the company to unpiete it. That the road was chartered for railroad purposes, and that the evident intention of the company was simply to gain access to the Osnaburg Mining Company's mines and for no other purpose.

Plaintiff further alleges that there are no depots or freight houses along the line of said road and that the company does and always has refused to carry passengers and freight as they are obliged to do under the charter. That they discrimi-nate against coal mining companies other than those who own switches, refusing to lay switches to other mines. That one of the companies so treated is the Hershey Coal Co. That the railroad company is in no way carrying out the letter of its char-

Therefore plaintiff prays that the comcarawas county September 10, 1852. He removed to Canton when 18 years of age, and read law with Judge Meyer for tiree corporate rights, and that it be excluded therefrom and dissolved. That it be ousted from all rights and privileges of its charter, and ousted from discriminating against the Hershey Coal company. Thayer & Gilson are attorneys for the

The question of purity in food is a may ter of the greatest importance, and de-serves most careful and constant consideration; yet so ingenious are the methods nowadays adopted to adulterate, and the processes employed to cheapen manufac-ture, that it is often very difficult to determine the merits of any particular article of food. Upon attempting to pass the check, however, Keefer was informed that the signature of George Goll was a forgory. Investigation proved this to be true, and Detective Isaac Walkup was chosen to look into the matter. He did so with the result that Goll was quietly arrested at Loudenville yesterday and taken before a justice of the peace in that town.

George Goll, whose name was signed to the check is a well-to-do business man, who owns stores at Loudenville and Lakeville, and it was his own son in whose fament.

ville, and it was his own son in whose fa yor it was drawn and who committed the forgery.
Friends interfered with the prosecution

Friends interfered with the prosecution of the case, and a brother of the forger came to the front with the necessary amount to settle all costs, and to reimburse Mr. Keefer to the extent of his invostment in the worthless check. The matter ended there, which is very fortunate for young Goll. The young man is inclined to be a sport, and being unable to meet the expense incident to a member-hip in that fraternity, was forced to commit the forgery.

The father knows nothing of his son's rascality, having been kept in ignorance of the entire transaction.
The warrant for Goll's arrest was made out by Justice Ringle, before whom the information was made by Mr. Keefer.

King of Medicines

Scrofulous Humor - A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well. "Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sar-from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems alm miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla s the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind
